

*Free Union, VA
Beech House
28 Acres*

This lovely parcel is situated in the heart of Free Union on a very private 28 acres with splendid westerly views of the Blue Ridge Mountains. The home was built by the current owner with attention to detail. The outside features include a copper roof, cedar siding, a huge terrace with a sunken heated dipping pool, and a cozy screened porch. Inside the views are maximized through out the great room, kitchen, and master bedroom with huge energy efficient windows. The house has both formal and casual living spaces, a large fireplace and well designed kitchen. The land can be accessed from both Free Union and Millington Road. The property consists of a mix of open pasture and some wooded acreage as well as a stream and small pond. There is ample room for the addition of a horse barn and paddocks, and it is surrounded by other horse farms. Great location and unbeatable views!
